Traveling Girl Scouts Write of Trip to Date

The first report from the traveling Senior Girl Scouts of Troop 1299 has arrived direct from the swank Hilton Hotel in San Antonio. "To date," writes Susan Hany-nack, "we have spent two days on the road and drawn quite a lot of attention riding along in our bus with the Greyhound on the side wearing a Bikini."

July 25 and greeting us was a busload of 37 senior Boy Scouts from Georgia. Boy! Did we ever cheer up fast." Roughing it hasn't entered the picture yet according to the correspondent. A report of scorpions and water-moccasins sent the troop scurrying for the bus at their first try. The bus load of 20 girls left Torrance July 23 for the 28 day trip they had save three years for. They are accompanied by nine mothers and will tour 27 States and Canada before their return. Following the stay at the Hilton Hotel the troop will journey on to New Orleans. "We're all looking forward to the rest of the trip with anxiousness because we know the best is yet to come," concludes Susan.
